The Steadman Clinic (TSC) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

For more information, please see TSC's Nondiscrimination Notice.

Disability Services

TSC provides free aids and services to hearing-impaired individuals, such as qualified sign language interpreters and written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats).

Communication with Individuals with Limited English Proficiency

TSC will take reasonable steps to ensure that individuals with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) have meaningful access to our services. TSC provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

Complaints and Grievances

If you believe TSC has failed to provide these services or discrimination has occurred, you can file a grievance by mail, phone, or email to the attention of the Compliance Department or compliance@thesteadmanclinic.com. Individuals may contact Amy Manske, Vice President of Clinical Operations, for assistance.
